

I'd like to note that I'm opposed to the FCC allowing LPFM stations priority over FM translator stations. Here in rural Nebraska, we have very few strong stations as it is. Specifically, K-LOVE and Air One stations are broadcast here via FM translators and serve the public interest by transmitting wholesome, positive programming.

Thank you.